

Infant Program Development

I. Social and Emotional Development

- Enjoys having people clap
- Starts feeling emotions of jealousy, affection, sympathy
- Plays chasing and hiding games
- Shows specific wants by gestures and vocalization
- Plays ball with adults
- Becomes attached to favorite possessions (blanket, toy)

II. Language and Understanding Skills

- Names body parts
- Points to several objects or pictures when named
- Follows simple commands

III. Large Muscle Skills

- Walks alone
- Throws a ball
- Sits in a chair
- Improves balance and coordination

IV. Small Muscle Skills

- Feeds self with spoon
- Attempts scribbling
- Stacks small objects
- Builds tower of 2 blocks